Privacy Notice

Introduction

The Coastal Federation are the Data Controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act. We are committed to ensuring that any personal data we hold about you and your child is protected in accordance with data protection laws and is used in line with your expectations. This privacy notice explains what personal data we collect, why we collect it, how we use it and how we protect it.

What personal data do we collect?

We collect personal data about you and your child to provide care and learning that is tailored to meet your child's individual needs. We also collect information in order to verify your eligibility for free childcare as applicable.

Personal details that we collect about your child include:

- your child's name, date of birth, address, health and medical needs, development needs, and any special educational needs.

Where applicable we will obtain child protection plans from social care and health care plans from health professionals.

We will also ask for information about who has parental responsibility for your child and any court orders pertaining to your child.

Personal details that we collect about you include:

- your name, home and work address, phone numbers, email and emergency contact details, and family details.

This information will be collected from you directly in our registration form

If you apply for up to 30 hours free childcare, we will also collect your national insurance number or unique taxpayer reference (UTR), if you're self-employed.

We may also collect your national insurance number or other information regarding any benefits and family credits that you are in receipt to secure additional funding for your child.

Why we collect this information and the legal basis for handling your data

We use personal data about you and your child in order to provide childcare services and fulfil the contractual arrangement you have entered into. This includes using your data to:

- contact you in case of an emergency
- to support your child's wellbeing and development
- to manage any special educational, health or medical needs of your child whilst they are within our care

- to carry out regular assessment of your child's progress and to identify any areas of concern
- to maintain contact with you about your child's progress and respond to any questions you may have
- to process your claim for up to 30 hours funded childcare
- to secure additional funding (eg, EYPP, DAF)
- to keep you updated with information about our service

We will record your child's learning activities using an online system called Tapestry. This may include photographs and videos. You will have the opportunity to withdraw your consent at any time for images taken by confirming so in writing.

We have a legal obligation to process safeguarding related data about your child should we have concerns about their welfare. We also have a legal obligation to transfer records and certain information about your child to any other early years provider that your child currently attends or the school that your child will move on to when they leave our pre-school.

Who we share your data with

In order for us to deliver childcare services we will also share your data as required with the following categories of recipients:

- Ofsted – during an inspection or following a complaint about our service
- the Local Authority (eg, for funded early years childcare arrangements)
- the government's eligibility checker (for 2 year old funding and 30 hour funding arrangements)
- Any other early years provider that your child currently attends and the school that your child will be attending

We will also share your data:

- if we are legally required to do so, for example, by law, by a court or the Charity Commission;
- to enforce or apply the terms and conditions of your contract with us;
- to protect your child and other children; for example by sharing information with, professionals, social care or the police;
- if it is necessary to protect our rights, property or safety
- if we transfer the management of the setting, in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective buyer so they may continue the service in the same way.

We will never share your data with any other organisation to use for their own purposes.

How do we protect your data?

We protect unauthorised access to your personal data and prevent it from being lost, accidentally destroyed, misused, or disclosed by keeping your child's enrolment form in a locked cabinet in the school office, the office is also locked when not in use. Some details are also stored on our laptop and office computer which are password protected.

How long do we retain your data?

We retain your child's personal data and development records for up to 3 years after your child no longer uses our setting, Medication records and accident records are kept for longer according to legal requirements. Your child's records will be passed to the school as part of the transition process.

In some instances (eg, child protection, or other support service referrals) we are obliged to keep your data for longer if it is necessary to comply with legal requirements.

Your rights with respect to your data

You have the right to:

- request access, amend or correct your/your child's personal data
- request that we delete or stop processing your/your child's personal data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing; and
- request that we transfer your, and your child's personal data to another person

If you wish to exercise any of these rights at any time or if you have any questions, comments or concerns about this privacy notice, or how we handle your data please contact us. If you continue to have concerns about the way your data is handled and remain dissatisfied after raising your concern with us, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or ico.org.uk/

We keep this notice under regular review. You will be notified of any changes where appropriate. Most importantly, if you have any questions, please do come and talk to us.
